

PSS Business Development Manager

PSS are currently looking for a Business Development Manager to join our London team.

If you are energetic, enjoy and thrive in a fast paced role and industry then please read on..

As the number one Soft Cleaning Services company in Central London, your role would involve meeting and liaising with a wide range of companies and individuals, with no two days alike.

The ideal candidate should be a true 'people person', able to work confidently with figures as well as having a sound knowledge of Microsoft Office (Excel, PowerPoint and Word).

A full job description will be discussed at the interview as well details of the role package and benefits.

Applicants need to apply in writing with CV of their career path to date by no later than Friday 16th August 2019.

Successful applicants only will be acknowledged and if you have not been contacted by Monday 19th 2019 unfortunately you have not been successful.

Interviews will take place on Wednesday 21st August 2019.
